PYRAMID PLUS APPROACH:

18 Training Sessions on Embedding Evidence-Based Inclusion Practices into the Pyramid Model Framework which supports Social Emotional Competence and Addresses Challenging Behavior in Young Children

Dates: OCTOBER 12 – 14 and NOVEMBER 2 – 4, 2017

Time: 8:00 am – 5:00 pm each day

Location: University of Colorado Denver

Address: 1380 Lawrence Street, Denver, CO 80204 2nd Floor Terrace Room

Targeted Audience: Early Childhood professionals and others working to improve the social emotional health of children birth – 5 years; including administrators, coaches, trainers, teachers, Early Childhood Mental Health consultants and specialists, Early Intervention providers and other health professionals are encouraged to attend.

Structure of Training: The materials were developed so participants will be able to apply strategies and tools in their practice. Presentation will be delivered in a manner that systematically breaks the content into 18 sessions with specific topics and strategies, which provide concrete examples based on both center and home based settings. Participants will receive a thumb drive containing all training materials and will be required to either print their own paper copies of training handouts or use a computer to view them during the training. Computer rentals may be available.

Pyramid Plus Approach (PPA) training satisfies the state requirement for Child Guidance Strategies and is considered a series training in PDIS. In order to receive a certificate of attendance you must attend ALL 6 days of training and complete ALL 18 sessions. CEUs and course credits (undergraduate and graduate) available with additional fees and assignments. For more information, email pyramidplus@ucdenver.edu

Cost: $750 per person
