Pyramid Plus Approach Training
Especially for Arabic Speakers

About this Special Offering for Arabic Speakers
This Pyramid Plus Approach training is offered especially for Arabic Speakers. Translation into Arabic will be provided for all sessions and participants will have the opportunity to have discussions in Arabic. All are welcome!

About the Pyramid Plus Approach Training
Over the course of 18 training sessions, you will learn about social-emotional competencies and inclusion in early childhood. The training is designed for Early Childhood professionals and others working to improve the social emotional health of young children, ages zero to five.

Individuals who complete the full course (all 18 sessions) of the Pyramid Plus Approach training from a Certified Trainer will be considered to have met the requirements for Early Childhood Guidance Strategies in accordance with Division of Child Care rules regulating child care centers and family home licenses.

Registration is available online at https://ecconnect.ecclacolorado.org. You must sign in as or create an account for each person who registers. Registration deadline is May 2.
