The Technical Assistance Center on Social Emotional Intervention for Young Children, (TACSEI) is a five-year grant made possible by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs. TACSEI takes the research that shows which practices improve the social-emotional outcomes for young children with, or at risk for, delays or disabilities and creates FREE products and resources to help decision makers, caregivers, and service providers apply these best

Crested Butte Preschool Module Training

Pyramid Model preschool module training will be held in Crested Butte, Colorado August 11-13, 2010. The content of the training reflects a commitment to promoting social emotional development in all young children but recognizes the need for more intensive interventions when children have significant social emotional needs and challenging behavior. The importance of working with families and building teams will be woven throughout four primary content areas related to supporting children's social emotional development. Trainers will focus attention on what will be needed for fidelity implementation of these practices. Deadline to register is August 1, 2010.

In addition, Pyramid Model infant/toddler module training will be held November 3-5, 2010 in Colorado Springs, Colorado. For information on these and other upcoming trainings, please visit our training page.
